Christmas gifts from Brumlovka

If you are someone who likes to plan your gift shopping and doesn't shop at the last minute, here are some tips for beautiful gifts. If you belong to the other group and are starting to feel a little desperate on December 22, you can safely rely on this list to buy gifts for the whole family in no time.

Gifts for HER

No woman will be offended by beautiful jewellery from the JK Jitka Kudláčková jewellery. This season is watched over by guardian angels, a symbol of protection, love and divine grace, or a unique piece from the Kubistik or Viva Vision collections. You can't go wrong with body care in the form of vouchers either. Skin and nails will be taken care of at the Radka Chvátlová Beauty Studio, and hair will be taken care of at the newly opened Lady Li hair salon. Sustainable fashion made from quality organic cotton by Meera is also new at Brumlovka and you can find designer, but highly functional underwear, dresses or jackets here. Colleagues at work will certainly be delighted with a small or large decoration from Květiny Romantika, and if you are not sure whether you can guess their tastes, there is always the option of a dm gift card.

Gifts for HIM

Gentlemen will appreciate a new quality shirt or fashion accessories from the Anthony's men's boutique, suitably complemented by a voucher for the services of We Hate Ironing (ladies, for once you don't have to iron those shirts yourself and can make time for yourself). Every owner of major horsepower under the bonnet will be delighted with treatment for their metal darling - Automyčka Collection offers several washing programmes.

For gentlemen with an interest in technology and mechanics, the LEGO® Technic series from KITSTORE is the ideal gift. You can also spin the wheels of a legendary Ferrari Daytona SP3 or Bugatti Chiron. One interesting tip is branded sunglasses, such as the popular aviators from Lens Optik, and a practical item would be a pack of vitamins and nutritional supplements from Lemon Pharmacy. And if you need to gently educate your man about his own health, you should know that the book titled "Genital, the male capital" by the Urosanté urology clinic is a light-hearted, humorous publication on an otherwise quite serious topic.

Gifts for GOURMETS

Who doesn't like good food? Brumlovka has a wide range of restaurants for which you can give your loved ones a voucher for an entertaining gastronomic experience. The pleasure of sharing a meal and time together is offered by the modern Vietnamese restaurant Dian. One popular gift is a voucher for the Grosseto pizzeria, as a gastronomic trip to sample Mediterranean cuisine. Lovers of Czech cuisine and the artisanal bitter beverage will be delighted with a gift from the Turnovské pivnice.

You can also have a gift basket prepared with wine and delicacies at Bianco Rosso or Sommellerie, or you might prefer some healthy food from Maranatha. Delight coffee lovers with a gift certificate or bag of select beans from the roasters at Costa Coffee, Coffee Perk or Tlap's Coffee. Wine buffs will be sure to enjoy the ASKO home wine cabinet for up to 190 bottles and a special area for preparing the wine and the glasses before serving. And if you'd like to give someone something smaller, or fancy treating yourself, we recommend a delicious Christmas braided bread from the Zrno Zrnko craft bakery (but only during the Christmas period).

SPORT&RELAX gifts

You can't go wrong with gifts focusing on sports and relaxation. For example, you can treat your loved ones to energy and health with membership at the exclusive Balance Clubu Brumlovka fitness and wellness centre, where they can enjoy some sports activity and then relax. One way of getting fit is to exercise at Body Express, where just 20 minutes a week can provide the body with enough training to be strong, active and burn off unwanted fat.

For fun and games in the world of virtual reality, try the Avatar VR Park. However, there are other treats to put under the tree than just a voucher. Get some hugely popular Cobra Ultra Swipe goggles from the arena brand store for water lovers and a new bike for the kids from bikero, without having to wait ages for it to be delivered. It has all its bikes in stock, after all. And in addition to the LEGO® building kits from KITSTORE you can also conjure a smile on the children's faces with their own zoo, farm or prehistoric dinosaur collection from the Mandala Montessori shop.

Storage boxes at Brumlovka

An increased frequency of deliveries and waiting couriers can be expected in connection with Christmas gifts. Strategically placed storage bins that are accessible 24/7 can save you and them time.

Z-BOXES used by Zásilkovna can be found in two places, on Václava Sedláčka St. by the Gamma (O2) building and on U pomníku St. by the ČEZ building, where you can also find the ALZA BOX there.

There are also two shared delivery boxes at Brumlovka used by any supplier (Česká pošta, PPL and others). An OX POINT is located at the Za Brumlovkou car park, by the entrance to the Beta building garage. BLOCKS can be found in the Filadelfie building in the entrance to the offices from Želetavská Street. All you have to do to collect is register your telephone number. You can find instructions HERE.

We remind you that the main reception desks at the various buildings cannot accept personal parcels. Issue points are therefore an ideal way to collect a parcel in order and on time.

Sommellerie: St. Martin's Day wines from November 10

This year you can once again look forward to the increasingly popular St. Martin's Day and the first young wines at SOMMELLERIE.

This year promises truly interesting St. Martin's Day wines. We will find out exactly what they will be like and how many there will be after the evaluation, but we can already expect that they will be lighter and with a lower alcohol content because of the favourable season. The reds will be soft, velvety and very drinkable thanks to the warm August. The white and rosé wines will have softer acidity than last year and will be complemented by a light fruitiness.

Because November 11 falls on a Friday this year and many of you will already be on your way for the weekend, SOMMELLERIE will be launching sale of these wines on Thursday, November 10, at 11 am, and the traditional goose tasting will naturally also be available.

The SOMMELLERIE team looks forward to seeing you.
